

Departmental Report of Hindi Department MIL (2024)

The students of 4th Semester of the department of Hindi, Lady Keane College, Shillong had an opportunity to participate in the National Seminar organised by Hindi Department, NEHU, Shillong on 1&2 March, 2024 on the topic MEGHALAYA KA LOKOTSAV: SAHITYA, SANGEET EVAM KALA

The main objective of this seminar was to introduce the students about the folk festivals of Meghalaya through literature, music and art. Through this program, the students were able to witness the gracious and magnificent culture of Meghalaya which focussed the varied forms of art and literature. The program didn't only portrayed the talks on festivals of Meghalaya but also had a grand presentation of various traditional songs, dances and poetry recitations of other cultures too. This had lead to a sense of loving, preserving and respecting our rich culture and tradition.

In this program, the Head of the Department of Hindi, Dr. Jean S. Dkhar has also presented a short speech on a Khasi poet Soso Tham and recited his poem U Sandy in hindi which was translated by her. It was a colourful and delightful celebration in the form of a seminar. All the students have received certificates of participation.
