

BENGALI DEPARTMENT

Programme Outcome:

The prospective outcome of this Course is to introduce the students to the vast plethora of cultural and anthropological domain through prose, poetry and novels in Bengali Literature. It has a structured curriculum targeted to foster academic and applied analytical skills.

The curriculum integrates basic tenants of journalism, report writing, interviewing skills, copy-writing for advertisement, content editing, proof reading and translation. The idea is to provide the students with the required hands-on training.

Bengali, being the 4th most spoken language in the world presents ample professional opportunity. The aspirant can get jobs in print media, translation work, proof reading etc. Moreover, being one of the Modern Indian Languages, it also furnishes scope for the aspirants as faculties of Bengali language and linguistics, not only in Indian but also foreign universities as well.

Furthermore, Bengali language also significantly contributes to ethnographic diversity of not only India but the World as a whole.

Course Outcome:

Course Name	Course Outcome
Degree MIL (General Compulsory)	This paper will introduce the students to prose, poetry and novels in Bengali Literature. It has an oriented curriculum which includes journalistic, reporting, interview, advertisement writing, editing, proof reading and translating. The idea is to provide the students with the required hand-on training.
Paper I-Degree elective/Hons	This paper introduces the students to the history of Bengali Literature
Paper II-Degree elective/Hons	This paper introduced the students to Bengali rhetoric prosody and acquaints them with some of the major works of poetry and drama.
Paper III-Degree elective/Hons	The paper deals with the history and nature of the Bengali Language. The paper exposed the students to the language, literature and culture of the Khasi and Garo communities of Meghalaya.
Paper IV-Degree elective/Hons	The paper deals with the stylistics of Bengali Literature in the pre and postmodern poetry, prose, essay, drama, novel and chronicles.
Paper V-Degree elective/Hons	This paper primarily focuses on study of some selected short stories and novels in Bengali. It acquaint the students with Assamese short story (Translated into Bengali).

Paper VI-Degree elective/Hons	This paper will introduced the students to selected prose and poetry in Bengali.
Paper VII- Degree elective/Hons	This paper attempts to familiarize the students with the history of Bengali theatre. It also seeks to introduce them to the extant types of plays. It envisages a study of some well-known Bengali plays.
PaperVII- Degree elective/Hons	This paper involves a study of history of literature in Sanskrit, English and Assamese (Literature of a neighbouring state). This paper seeks to give the students a grounding in aesthetics.