

Take Back The Arts: Chapter 8

Objective: To provide a platform where art finds expression and reclaim art back to the artist irrespective of standing or repute.

The 8th edition of the Take Back The Arts program was organised on the 26th of March, 2024, and witnessed the participation of a number of budding artists who managed to express their creativity and artistry through craft, poetry, painting, song, dance and any other form or artistic expression. The programme was attended by a crowd of more than 40 inclusive of teachers and students. The programme's sole aim is to appreciate art in its crude form and to offer a platform for students to display their creative talents on stage and showcase their artistry.
